How can we work with you ?

Industry Development

How can the ABC help support the development of a strong and sustainable Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander broadcasting media and communications industry I remote, regional and urban Australia?

ABC Stretch RAP 2015-2018:

Provide in-kind support , advice and where appropriate, training and partnerships with organisations in the Indigenous media sector.

Increase Indigenous representation in on-air roles.

3% Employment and goods and services to be procured from Indigenous suppliers.

Share content, train broadcasters, develop partnerships,

Indigenous Media Partnerships

Aims

The ABC seeks to establish a professional development exchange program which:

- creates opportunities for two-way sharing of media production skills and cultural knowledge between the ABC and Indigenous media
- invests in and grows the Indigenous media talent pool
- delivers on the ABC's Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) commitments
- empowers Indigenous media through mentoring opportunities and skills development, as part of the ABC's commitment to support a healthy grassroots media ecology
- establishes strong ongoing relationships with Indigenous communities

The program may include:

1. Job swaps
2. Digital skills training
3. Mentoring
4. Content collaboration between the ABC and Indigenous media

THANK YOU!
